Saturday, Aug. 30

FREE MUSIC, FIREWORKS AT DILLON AMPHITHEATRE

Back in the Day will take the stage at the Dillon Amphitheatre on Saturday, Aug. 30, to conclude the Lake Dillon Theatre Company's Sunset at the Summit concert series. Back in the Day is a multi-talented, old school Motown band from Denver. The music is sure to bring back old memories while creating new ones. The free music runs from 7 to 9 p.m., followed by the town of Dillon's end of summer fireworks celebration. Visit www.townofdillon.com for more information.

SWEET SOUNDS OF ARNIE J. GREEN AT THE SNAKE

Arnie J. Green will play the Snake River Saloon in Keystone on Saturday, Aug. 30.

Green grew up in Vallejo, Calif., where the Bay Area's secular and religious music inspired him to his life's calling. His work with other musicians has varied, taking him from the New Orleans blues of the Subdudes to the Grateful Dead greatness of Shakedown Street and Melvin Seals of the Jerry Garcia Band. Doors open at 4 p.m., and the music starts at 9:30. Call (970) 468-2788 for more information.

BEAU THOMAS, SPECIAL GUESTS IN FRISCO

Beau Thomas & G-Mac featuring Jay Allan will take the stage at The Barkley Ballroom in Frisco on Saturday, Aug. 30, with soulful vocals, smooth rhythms and percussion playing originals and all of your favorite covers. Fresh off his appearance on "The Voice," Thomas leads this talented group of musicians, including Allan, who is a touring guitarist from Arizona and will be playing as a special guest. The free show starts at 9 p.m. Visit www.barkleyballroom.com.
