Presents FOUR DAYS of unforgettable
independent films

Today's Line-up for
FRIDAY, SEPT. 19

ANGEL AZUL 3 p.m. | Village Ten Mile Room

Angel Azul explores the artistic journey of an innovative artist who combines creativity with an important environmental solution; the creation of artificial coral reefs from statues he's cast from live models to encourage diving tourism to dilute its impacts. (sponsored by BHH Partners)

PIE LADY OF PIE TOWN and WHAT CHEER? 3 p.m. | Breckenridge Town Hall

In "Pie Lady," Kathy Knapp, a Dallas businesswoman, left her charmed life to bake pie in a dusty town with no traffic light, no gas station and sketchy utilities – but it has brought her, and her clients, all the happiness in the world. In "What Cheer?," Richard Kind (Spin City) plays a widower faced with the What Cheer? Brigade, a marching band that floods his world with boisterous interminable song until he comes to terms with the death of his wife. (sponsored by the Wednesday Morning Ladies Slacker League)

MCCONKEY 3 p.m. | Riverwalk Center

This documentary examines the legacy one athlete left to the progression of his sports, and the path he paved to conquer his dreams. Shane McConkey is revered as a pioneer of freeskiing and ski base jumping, and through his talent and unique, irreverent outlook on life, he inspired countless lives. (sponsored by Bob & Jen McIntosh)

PEOPLE OVERCOMING ADVERSITY 7 p.m. | Breckenridge Christian Ministries

A female boxer, a Mormon teenager who realizes he is gay and a veteran with PTSD come together in this block of films that leave viewers feeling impassioned for those facing adversity. (sponsored by Bill & Laurie Bolthouse and Stan Miller, Inc. & Matthew Stais Architects)

ADVENTURE REEL 6 p.m. | Riverwalk Center

Travel the world through kayaking in the rainforest to searching for glaciers in Uganda to climbing the remote and beautiful Mt. Roraima in Venezuela to traveling the Carbondale back yard in these seven films. (sponsored by Whole Foods Market)

PLUS many other films, forums and parties! Full schedule, tickets and lodging deals online

FOOD PATRIOTS Noon | Breckenridge Backstage Theater

A family afflicted with a food borne super bug takes a closer look at food and food sources. (sponsored by Gary, Phyllis & Gracie Martinez)

COLORADO FILMS Noon | Village Ten Mile Room

The biggest burn in Colorado history, two landmark buildings that define Boulder history and the lives of four ranchers in the Gunnison valley tell tales of Colorado life. (sponsored by Western Colorado State University)

FREE COMMUNITY CHILDREN'S PROGRAM 3 p.m. | Riverwalk Center

Featuring three short films and film-specific interactive components designed to help children (and adults!) explore the art of filmmaking. (sponsored by Whole Foods Market, Climax Molybdenum, CU-Denver Digital Animation Center & Little Earth Studio)

FREE FORUMS Times/Locations vary | check BreckFilmFest.com for details.

A historic look at Superman in the CU FILM STUDIES PROGRAM. A discussion about THE ART OF EDITING. Differing views on the CHANGING LANDSCAPE OF DISTRIBUTION. Input from independent filmmakers in the INDEPENDENT FILMMAKER FORUM.

HIGHER 6 p.m. | Riverwalk Center

Don't miss the fifth screening in the United States of "Higher," the Rocky Mountain premiere of Teton Gravity Research's latest partner project with Jeremy Jones of splitboarding fame! This time, Jones goes higher in beautiful and remote parts of the world in the third of his Deeper, Further, Higher trilogy. (sponsored by Finlandia Vodka, Protect Our Winters & the Breckenridge Dental Group)

WRENCHED 9 p.m. | Village Ten Mile Room

Wrenched captures the passing of the monkey wrench from pioneers of eco-activism to the new generation which will carry Edward Abbey's legacy forward. (sponsored by Jeffrey & Ellen and "Doc PJ" Perrinjaquet, MD, Medical Director of Doctors to the World)
