SPECIAL TO THE DAILY

Winner of multiple awards during the 2014 film festival circuit, 'Una Vida' is dedicated to finding a cure for Alzheimer's disease, an homage to the musical culture of New Orleans and, at its core, a story of redemption for all of the central characters. Neuroscientist Dr. Alvaro Cruz, haunted by dreams of the mother he lost to the disease that is the sixth-leading cause of death in the United States, finds solace in discovering, assisting and eventually reuniting a family torn asunder by poverty and disease. Aunjanue Ellis, who masterfully portrays the afflicted 'Una Vida' and also appears in 'The Help,' has the ability to lose focus in her eyes, snapping back to reality when music or memories stir her to do so. 'Una Vida' will screen at 6 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 21, at the Riverwalk Center. Visit www.breckfilmfest.com for more information.

10:30 a.m., Lincoln West Mall, 2nd Floor, 100 S. Main St. Local fiber artist designing & creating art you can wear, hang or just admire. Studio features hand quilted wall hangings, lightweight fabric pins and barrettes, hand knit scarves, fabric cards, coasters, paper weights, signature embellished vests & sweatshirts, embellished fleece hats & headbands, and more.
