Films not to be missed - just some among 60+ selected!

ANGEL AZUL (arts/documentary)

This film explores the artistic journey of Jason deCaires Taylor, an innovative artist who combines creativity with an important environmental solution; the creation of artificial coral reefs from statues he's cast from live models.

BINGO NIGHT! (comedy)

A financially-strapped senior citizen finds a creative (and legally dubious) means of getting some quick cash in this sly and high-spirited comic caper.

BLUE (children's film)

Blue is about a world where balloons are alive and scared of children. In a world where balloons are alive one fearful balloon must learn to put his fragile life in the hands of an unlikely friend.

THE FRONTIER (drama)

Sean, a retired literature professor, writes a letter to his estranged ranch hand son. Tennessee goes home just in time as Nina, Sean's personal trainer, moves in. The tension between Sean and Tennessee is ever-present. One evening Sean and Tennessee find themselves alone in the house for the first time.

FAMILIES ARE FOREVER (spiritual)

Tom and Wendy were devout Mormon parents living in a conservative community. Then one day, Wendy read 13-year-old Jordan's diary and discovered he was gay. What happened next changed their lives forever. Their story will surprise you, give you hope and move you with the possibility of change.

BEYOND THE DROP (adventure)

Six pro kayakers from around the world meet up in the rainforests of Southern Mexico to run the Rio Tulijá. Led by Rafa Ortiz, the team explores the local culture, and insanely blue water with magnificent falls.
