

New clinic could threaten existing service

Community clinic surprised to learn of High Country Healthcare nonprofit PAGE A3

TRUE LOVE BEYOND WORDS

SUMMIT DAILY/MARK FOX

Laurence 'Campy' Campton, 95, has a kiss for his bride, Daisy, 92, on the day of their 75th wedding anniversary at their home in Salida Wednesday. The Camptons have endured a storied life and love affair over their three-quarters of a century together. It included World War II when Campton was wounded and became a prisoner of war in Germany following the Battle of the Bulge. 'Grampy Campy' as he is often referred to by members of his family, is also a pioneer in kayaking, having a top-three finish numerous times and a championship in the FIBArk 26-mile downriver race on the Arkansas in 1959. The Camptons have family in and around Summit County, including grandson Christian Campton, who along with his wife, Christy, owns Rivers Clothing and Kodi Rafting in Frisco.

Read their story on PAGE A2.

SCENE*

LEFTOVER SALMON IS THE MAIN COURSE

The Colorado jam-grass band heats up Spring Fever in Breckenridge. PAGE B1

COLORADO

Sentence for Sandbar shooting

Richard 'Rossi' Moreau receives life without parole plus 80 years for first-degree murder and seven felonies.

PAGE A18

See today's print classifieds for great automotive deals in Summit County!

Check out the additional 500+ regional vehicle inventory at summitdaily.com/auto